LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Elim Family,

Welcome to the 2022 Fall edition of The Elim Herald! It is our intention to keep you as informed as we possibly can on news, needs, activities, ministry, and student campus life here at EBIC.

In this release of The Elim Herald, you are going to find an article by my wife, Debbie, on the upgraded floral beautification of our campus (we were POPPED with colors this summer)! Also the front of College Hall has taken on a brand-new look with all six of its freshly painted pillars glowing with individual nightlights, making its historic regal look stand out for all to see! In case you have not heard, EBIC won "1st Prize" in the Lima Crossroads Festival and Bed Race in August. It is the first time we have done this and BAM - we became the Champs!!

There are other great articles on our NEW college mascot, Judah the Lion, Tiffany McDonnal writing about her experiences at NYSUM, and Elena Renaldo telling us how God touched her during Foundations Weekend.

We hope you enjoy The Elim Herald with all its digital conveniences and advantages for your smartphone, iPad or computer. And a special shout-out to our Marketing team for doing such an excellent job!

Dr. Fred and Debbie Antonelli

CAMPUS BEAUTY

If you have had a chance to see the beautiful flowers around campus, they are the result of a vision Dr. Antonelli had for EBIC. Because of all that was involved, he hired JOSH Landscape Co. to undertake the project. They planted an array of annuals and perennials, including marigolds, petunias and blue salvias.

After all the flowers were planted, the weather decided not to cooperate, and the summer became extremely dry. If not for the Armaly family: Rimon, Sherry, and their boys, and Sarah Ndune, I believe all the flowers would have perished! They stepped up to the plate and faithfully watered them. Others contributed to the weeding as well. Why is it that there can be a drought and still the weeds grow? (There is a spiritual lesson in there somewhere.)

We received several comments from students and residents on the campus, as well as those in or community, about how beautiful they looked. Just the other day, someone commented to me that the flowers “cheered up the campus!” Are you not glad that God created such beauty for us to appreciate? I have enjoyed working with this faithful team in making our campus “pop” with beauty.

NEW LIGHTS ON CAMPUS

Our beautiful College Hall received a wonderful update this summer! For many years, the majestic pillars that grace the front of this historic building often went unnoticed by passers-by, especially at night. However, thanks to our Chairman of the Board, Rev. Joseph Nettleton, accompanied by our facilities team, the pillars are now gracefully illuminated every evening. Rev. Joe installed the lights at the beginning of June, and we are so grateful for the care that he showed the school through his wonderful handiwork.

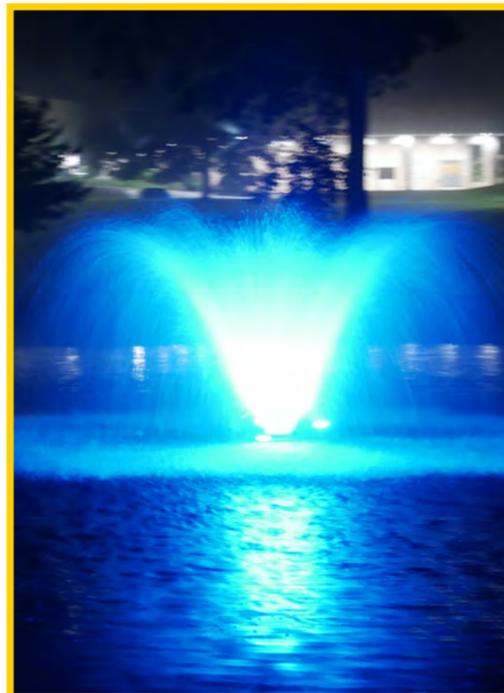

The college now looks absolutely stunning at night. The bell tower is illuminated in a beacon-like way, the fountain splashes a rainbow of colors in the pond, and the pillars glow steadily throughout the night. What a beautiful campus we have!

JUDAH THE LION!

Elim Bible Institute and College is a well-loved and reputable Christian college. Many men and women of God have walked through the sacred halls and worshiped the Lord on the Holy Hill. However, there has always been something missing that most schools and colleges embrace wholeheartedly. Throughout the years, many have expressed their desire to see such a presence on the Elim campus, and the time has finally come!

In the summer of 2022, the EBIC Marketing Department brought the school's first ever mascot to life: Judah the Lion! Judah is a fun-loving, energetic, and lovable friend who often appears around the school at different times and events. He loves hugs, high-fives, dance-offs, and pictures taken with his friends. He was introduced to the town of Lima during the Crossroads Festival and Bed Race (page 5), and was a big success among children and adults alike.

Mascots have a unique ability to draw together large groups of people under one common uniting goal. Elim has a rich history that spans nearly 100 years, and has reached countless countries and influenced numerous men, women and children throughout the years. Now each person who has ever stepped on campus as student, staff, or faculty member can proudly proclaim that he or she is a Lion in the Tribe of Judah!

If you are ever given the opportunity to see Judah in person, be sure to get a high-five and snap a quick picture! We cannot wait for you to meet him, and he cannot wait to meet you. Welcome to the Tribe of Judah, Elim family!

LIMA CROSSROADS FESTIVAL AND BED RACE CHAMPS!

On Saturday, August 6, EBIC participated in the Lima Crossroads Festival. The staff, students, and faculty who participated all had a wonderful time with the community, even in the heat of the summer. Our good friend, Judah the Lion, even made an appearance and had a lot of fun interacting with the children and adults of Lima!

One of the most unique aspects surrounding the Lima Crossroads Festival is their annual Bed Race. This is a competition that involves several different teams first constructing a “bed” on wheels prior to the race. They then compete to see who is the fastest team to push their bed a certain distance, make the most basketball shots, and then fill a 5 gallon water jug. It is a wild and fun time that encourages Lima’s festival to stand out from other surrounding towns.

This year’s Lima Crossroads Festival Bed Race Champions were none other than our very own team! Consisting of Shaniah and Michael Bell, Robert Jones, Isaac Kasperek and Andrew Weiler, our team made history as the first EBIC team to compete in the races. The men raced the bed back and forth as quickly as they could, Shaniah made every single basket, and they all worked together to fill the 5 gallon water jug fastest and most successfully.

We are all very proud of the team of staff and students, and were thrilled that the college’s appearance at the event was such a success. It was an amazing day to interact with the community and share with them a glimpse into who we are as a school. Judah was a huge hit among the children and the adults alike, and our team walked away with the first place prize. It is definitely easy to say that we are all looking forward to participating again in the years to come!

THE NYSUM INTERNSHIP

In the summer of 2022, EBIC sent a team of students to the New York School of Urban Ministry (or NYSUM). While in New York City, the students were given the opportunity to serve in several different capacities, including homeless ministry, soup kitchens, food trucks, worship ministry, youth and children's ministry, and more! It is always a blessing to send out our students and see the amazing work that they do for those around them! We asked Tiffany McDonnal, a current student and NYSUM team leader, to share a testimony of her time in the city.

NYSUM is a place where my convictions got confronted by God's grace meeting humanity's weakness.

NYSUM is an amazing place to connect with ministries and plug in to unique churches that worship God and bless the community. It challenges EBIC students to confront their thoughts on ministry, making us understand what it means to serve the "least of these." Serving the New York City community, and submitting to pastors and the staff of NYSUM, we needed to forget our desires and run alongside those with a greater purpose and vision. It was a training ground on the lessons of dying-to-self and meeting others where they were at in humility.

For me, it was the battleground of keeping my team in my mind, their needs, and their well-being. In those moments it was not just about the work required in ministering to the community, but the work concerning the team. My dying-to-self was addressing issues, encouraging others when nerves were high, and choosing to serve in the midst of conflict. This was my battlefield: dying-to-self, my comfort, my desire and my peace in loving others.

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT DEGREE

The purpose of the business management program is to prepare Christ-centered students who possess the knowledge and practical skills to meet the challenges of the rapidly changing marketplace. Students enrolled in this program will have the opportunity to develop their own character, build a strong business foundation, and acquire critical thinking skills needed to lead and impact their communities through Christian organizations and secular businesses.

MOVE-IN DAY!

My name is Shaniah Bell, and I have the privilege of serving as the Admissions Counselor at Elim Bible Institute and College while also enrolled as a part-time student! Playing both roles is something that I love and enjoy because it allows me to be personable with each individual student, while also joining them in various extracurricular activities, Elim events, chapels, times of worship, and classes.

In preparation for Move-In Day, our team in Admissions worked together to create a warm, welcoming experience for the incoming freshmen. Up until Move-In Day, we wondered how the incoming class would respond to the environment here at Elim and did not know what to expect. But we knew that we could trust that God brought them here for a grand purpose and plan to grow and prepare them for global ministry.

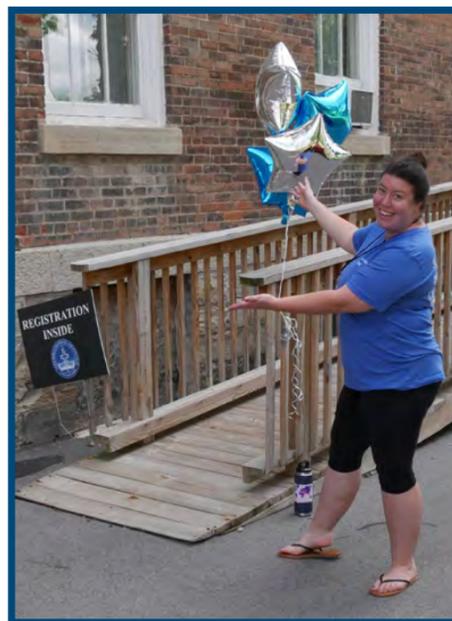

As students and their families flooded the room, there was a feeling of newness and refreshment that filled the space. It was exciting to see each student walk in with smiles on their faces and the attitude of expectancy for God to open their hearts and minds in a new way! Rooms were filled with great conversation, laughter, fellowship, and the occasional smell of fresh pizza.

As the Admissions Counselor, it was fun to finally put a face to each name. It was rewarding to finally see the people that Admissions had been in contact with, or in most cases tried to contact, and make a new personal connection with them.

As a current student, I have been able to witness what the Lord is already doing through the new students. There has been such a strong move of God's love, grace, care, support, hope, and joy among the students here, and I know it is just the beginning. I am expectant of God to do more and know that he will proceed to do exceedingly and abundantly above what we ask or imagine. The freshmen that have arrived for this Fall 2022 semester have only received a small taste of what I know the Lord can do for them, and the Admissions team cannot wait to see what more the Lord can do for them, and the Admissions team cannot wait to see what more the Lord does through the students as they seek Him and pursue the purpose and call on their lives here at Elim Bible Institute and College!

CAMPUS PICNIC

Elim Bible Institute and College strives not only to prepare servant leaders for global ministry, but also to create long-term relationships between the staff and students. Thus, the Campus Life office creates various on-campus events throughout the school year where students and staff have the opportunity to get to know each other deeper outside of the classroom or an office setting. One of the main events that accomplishes this goal is our annual EBIC campus picnic hosted during the first week of school. This year it was held on Friday, September 2nd.

Rubbab Gill, an international student from Australia, said the following about our campus picnic, “As a freshman, I didn’t know what to expect. I haven’t been in a college where students and staff interact outside the classroom in a more relax and laid-back setting. This event was a great opportunity for me to get to know my professors and the staff at Elim and get my mind off assignments, at least for the afternoon. The Campus Life staff set up games such as kan jam, cornhole and other icebreaker games to get everyone involved. Some students and staff watched and cheered others on, while others played. Everyone was involved in some way! The kitchen staff prepare a great meal for all of us. The campus picnic was a really enjoyable experience for me.”

It is our heart to help students build healthy and long-lasting relationships with their teachers and with each other. So, when their time at Elim comes to an end, they know that they still have a family who is praying for them and their ministry!

FOUNDATIONS WEEKEND

Leading up to Foundations Weekend, a few of us freshmen were afraid of what might be in store with the four sessions. I was feeling excited, but also quite nervous after hearing of the earlier Foundations Weekends, and how intense they could get with experiencing the Holy Spirit. I had never truly felt the Holy Spirit and was nervous about what to expect.

The first session was incredible and helped me to see clearly how my relationship with God needed to change by putting all of my trust in him. The second session helped me to better understand why as Christians we get baptized, and the meanings behind it. Then came the third session on Baptism in the Spirit. This was the one I had been desperate for, but also honestly afraid of. I listened to the whole sermon as Dr. A explained what Baptism in the Spirit was, and what we were about to experience. He then prayed for those that wanted to receive the Holy Spirit and those that wanted to refresh or grow in what they had. When he got to me, I experienced the most forgiveness, the most overwhelming grace, and the most love I have ever felt. I felt as though every bone in my body was cleansed of every bit of sin that I had ever done. I felt saturated in God's goodness and finally truly understood how my works of praying, reading the bible, and following its ways could never give me the same feeling of forgiveness that Jesus Christ could. Though I knew this to be true already, that day I experienced it.

I have not been the same since Foundations Weekend. I have so much more joy in my life after having clarity about the power of the Holy Spirit, and God's overwhelming love for me. "I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength." God is so good to us, and it is not because of how much we've prayed to him, or how good we are, but because God loves us. All we have to do is believe.

Written by Elena Renaldo, a current freshman at Elim Bible Institute and College.

2022 ALUMNI LUNCHEON

Two years ago, the world was hit with a pandemic that turned everyone's lives upside down. This made it very hard for people to remain connected with one another, especially when it came to the EBI and EBIC alumni. On Thursday, May 19, we were given the great blessing to be able to gather in person once again as alumni.

We were given a wonderful meal by the EBIC kitchen staff, and had a lovely time of fellowship during our meal. We then had the opportunity to worship under the leadership of Dick and Marji Grout, followed by a beautiful service. Dr. A, the president of Elim Bible Institute and College, gave a brief welcoming, and introduced the Alumni of the Year, Gloria Johansson. Gloria reminisced on some of her favorite memories as a student at Elim and caused us all to think back on our time as students as well. Reverend Sylvia Evans then shared a moving and powerful word that brought us all before the Lord and opened our mind and hearts to receive from Him.

While Covid-19 did put the world on hold and cause us all to pause spending time with each other, it did make it much sweeter when we could once again gather with one another. It was wonderful to see each other and to share with those dear to us what has been happening in our lives over the past couple of years. It was a sweet time to sit and reflect on the precious time each of us has spent on the Elim campus.

We do hope that every alumnus would consider joining us in the summer of 2023 for our next alumni luncheon! We would love to see you there and to hear how the Lord has been working in your life. Keep an eye out in the spring for your invitation to this special event!

LITTLE WOMEN MUSICAL

The EBIC theater class is working hard this semester to prepare the musical, Little Women.

“Louisa May Alcott’s beloved story of the adventures of the four March sisters is brought to vivid musical life in Little Women. The Civil War is in full swing, and the March sisters - Meg, the oldest, a romantic, the spirited and tomboyish Jo, sweet and loving Beth, and irascible, playful Amy - live in Concord, Massachusetts with their Marmee while their father is on the battlefield. Filled with adventure (both lived and imagined), heartbreak, and a deep sense of hope, the struggle of these ‘Little Women’ to find their own voices mirrors the growing pains of a young America. With buoyant, joyful melodies, memorable characters, and a big-hearted message, Little Women reminds us that ‘sometimes when you dream, your dreams come true.’” (Stage Agent)
