Dear Elim Family,

Welcome to our 2023/2024 “100th Anniversary” school year!

What a blessing to be President during the Centennial Year of Elim Bible Institute, now known as EBIC! Please read the piece in this edition of The Elim Herald about our upcoming 100th Anniversary. It’s a great article that you’ll find very interesting as we approach our celebration from May 9th to 12th, 2024 right here on our EBIC campus.

We’ve had a pretty busy summer, to say the least. Our grounds crew, led by our Grounds Director, Conor Waters, has upgraded our campus and made it look beautiful for our residents and visitors alike! A BIG shout-out to Miguel Todd, Doxson Deivendran, and my wife, Debbie, for their hard work in helping to make the campus look so inviting!

We hosted two EBI/EBIC Alumni Gatherings in April and July, drawing over 240 alumni on campus between the two events. It was a joyous time filled with worship, fellowship, reunions and meals together. What a great time of refreshing it was for our Elim family!

Foundations Weekend is always a powerful time of meeting with the Lord through the Holy Spirit. This year there were great testimonies from the students who attended NYSUM in May and the India Missions trip in August. Our students are gloriously encountering God.

I sincerely hope you enjoy this fall edition of The Elim Herald. A special thank you goes to Leah Waters, our Marketing Director, and her staff for their excellent work in providing this publication for us all.

Because of Him,

Dr. Fred Antonelli
President, EBIC

Summer Updates

Our beautiful campus had plenty of loving hands caring for it over the summer!

The Summer of 2023: the season of abundant rain, light and heavy haze, and ten yards of black diamond mulch. I would like to start by thanking Josiah Houseal, Doxson Deivendran, Darlene Thorpe, Tracey Waters, Barry Kwallek, Andrew Weiler, Dr. Fred Antonelli, and the First Lady of Elim Bible Institute and College, Debbie Antonelli. You were each essential to the success of getting both large and small projects done this Summer. Thank you for your hard work and commitment to maintaining Elim's beautiful campus. As we all know, it takes a team effort to work efficiently and effectively.

Due to the abundance of rain, the grass grew about as fast as Chewbacca punching the Millennium Falcon into hyperspace! This called for consistently mowing areas twice in a single week. With the Gravely Zero-Turn Mowers that were graciously donated to us by MTE Equipment, we were able to get the job done quickly to focus on the biggest project of the summer: mulching a wide range of flowerbeds.

I would like to acknowledge Debbie Antonelli for putting in many hours of hard work to keep the flowerbeds on campus looking more beautiful than ever. Your hardwork does not go unnoticed! When our you, our alumni and friends of Elim, visit and see the flowerbeds on campus, just know that the First Lady was there pulling weeds, watering, and pruning the flowers all summer to make them look so heavenly. Thank you, Debbie, for helping to lead a group of volunteers and for coming to my rescue with all of your flower knowledge.

The following flowerbeds were greatly updated this year: the Main Entrance, Library, Tabernacle, Student Center, Washington Hall, and College Hall. It was a very productive summer, and I am looking forward to what God has in store for Elim next year.

Written by Conor Waters, Grounds Director at Elim Bible Institute and College.

The Crossroads Festival

Connecting with our community through the annual festival and bed race.

On a beautiful sunny Saturday this past August, Lima, held its 38th Annual Lima Crossroads Festival, an event that brings people from all over to the four corners of downtown Lima for food, vendors, music and much more. The main event on Saturday is the Historic and Famous Lima Bed Race. For the last two years, Elim Bible Institute and College has participated in this event, even winning first place in 2022, thanks to our team member whose job was to make five out of five baskets, which she did. This gave us the edge over the leading team and put us in first place.

EBIC also had a vendor table where we were able to connect with various members of the community and share information about Elim. In addition to having materials pertaining to enrollment on our table, we also used some fun gadgets to attract people: an extra-large Rubik's cube that drew many puzzle-solving gurus, and our prize wheel that offered the opportunity to win various Elim merchandise.

Bringing Elim to our community through this event, with the goal of being a light (Matthew 5:16), building relationships, and meeting potential students, is something we look forward to every year.

IT'S MOVE-IN DAY!

Move-In Day

*Welcoming our new freshman class was a wonderful success!
We cannot wait to see how the Lord moves them during their time here!*

As the Admissions Counselor at Elim Bible Institute and College, I'd say that Move-In Day is always the sweetest and most special for more reasons than one. The very people that God places before you, and that you have poured into and received from are now arriving on campus. It is, was, and always will be a day packed full of emotions.

Not only does Move-In Day mark the end of a tedious process with the incoming freshman, but it marks a New Beginning, allowing them to step into the fullness of what God has for them here at Elim Bible Institute and College. It resembles how a parent watches their child grow up, and each new milestone they reach comes together with such joy and thankfulness to God for his grace and provision. And trust me, we came together that day.

We worshiped the Lord together, fellowshiped over a great meal, and continued through the night to connect and take in the beauty of the uniqueness of each new individual who joined us for the 2023-2024 Academic Year. God has been faithful to send us amazing students, hand-picked by Him and ready to take in all that He has for them. It is a privilege to come alongside each individual and celebrate this milestone in their lives, and we are excited to see what God will do through them and in us this year.

Foundation's Weekend

Encouraging students to strengthen their spiritual foundations one step at a time.

One of the most impactful weekends at Elim Bible Institute and College occurs during the first semester of every school year. This event, Foundation's Weekend, encourages each student to dig down to the foundation of their personal walk with Christ and ensure that the key cornerstones of their faith are set securely in place. The weekend includes sessions on the Lordship of Jesus Christ, Water Baptism, Baptism in the Holy Spirit, and Breaking Bondages. Each session is powerful and influential in its own way.

This year, we had several staff and faculty speak into the students' lives. Pastor Tim Case, one of EBIC's theology professors and pastor of Covenant Life Church in Henrietta, NY spoke on the divine importance of the Lordship of Jesus Christ. Pastor

Tim Fuest, EBIC's Associate Dean of Students and pastor of New Testament Church in Perry, NY encouraged the student body to get plugged in to a church where they could be baptized in water. Dr. Fred Antonelli, EBIC's President, wrapped up the weekend speaking on being baptized in the Holy Spirit, as well as breaking the bondages that are holding students back in their faith.

Each student is moved differently throughout the weekend, as he or she works on creating a solid foundation in their walk with Christ, before diving into the rest of their time at EBIC. Some students may have already been baptized with water and in the Spirit, but have not fully accepted the Lordship of Christ, as well as letting go of the bondages that are holding them down. Others may have accepted the Lordship of Christ, but have never taken the step to be baptized in water. Other students may have heard each message several times already throughout their years at Elim, but may feel like they are hearing and receiving the lessons taught for the very first time.

Through each of these moving sessions filled with worship and a powerful word, the students are led through the necessary steps to ensuring a solid spiritual foundation. Each student enters the weekend with uncertain expectancy, not fully understanding how powerfully they will be changed. What a blessing to be able to commit an entire weekend to the pursuit of the Lord here at EBIC!

Written by Leah Waters, Marketing Director at Elim Bible Institute and College.

The Campus Picnic

This annual gathering on the Front Lawn serves as a bonding experience for our Elim community.

The EBIC Campus Picnic is one of the highlights of every new school year and serves as an amazing way for students, staff, and faculty to bond, eat good food, and enjoy silly games. The evening is a fun way to relax and take time to get to know each other outside of the classroom. Freshmen especially can appreciate the time that they get to spend bonding with people outside of their own class as they dive into their adventure here at EBIC.

We asked Jessica Hudson, an EBIC junior, to share some of her thoughts on this year's gathering:

“The campus picnic this year, like every year, was a ton of fun! There were games, fellowship, music and of course, plenty of good food! Campus picnics are some of the most fun events because they really allow the freshmen to connect with one another, other students, and staff. The fellowship and fun atmosphere are always such a blessing to those that come. In some ways, it kind of feels like a family reunion!”

New Business Certificates

Earn a one-year certificate that will greatly benefit your career!

Continuous learning is important in the workplace. However, returning to school for four or even two years might not be realistic for many people. This is why certificate programs have become a popular way to quickly learn necessary skills.

In fall 2023, EBIC started offering a distance education Business Certificate program. This online certificate program is twelve credits (four classes) in length and can be completed in two semesters. Students who enroll in the program will get the quality of an undergraduate education, with a track of study specialized for what they need. Since the courses are delivered in an online, asynchronous format, they are perfect for busy, working adults. The Business Certificate can even be transferred into one of EBIC's other degree programs if the student decides to continue their studies.

Currently, the four Business Certificate tracks available are: Launch a Non-Profit Organization, Business Management, Marketing Strategies, and Church Administration. Each track targets specific, practical business skills such as understanding fundraising and marketing, developing administrative skills, analyzing financial statements, managing projects, resolving conflict, and strategic planning. The faculty teaching the courses are successful Christian businesspeople with relevant experience.

EBIC recognizes the value of godly individuals practicing biblical principles in the business world. It is our belief that Christian workers are an essential part of God's manifested kingdom on the earth. Jesus said in Matthew 5:16, "In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven" (English Standard Version).

Acquiring solid business insight to produce high quality work is a practical way to demonstrate God's standard of excellence and bring glory to his name.

Summer Internships

Many of our students put the lessons they have been learning in the classroom into practice all over the world this summer!

EBIC is about preparing servant leaders! To this end, we believe that ministry preparation is incomplete without practical ministry experience under the guidance of seasoned ministry leaders. This is why all of our certificate and degree programs at Elim have a practical internship component. Besides serving at NYSUM in New York City, our students find valuable internship opportunities serving as camp counselors, serving in their local churches, and even gaining valuable cross-cultural ministry experience on short-term mission trips! Students consistently express how they grow in areas of servant leadership, as well as having their hearts enlarged for the lost!

Written by Matthew Slisher, Ministry Director and Faculty at Elim Bible Institute and College.

My prayer going into the mission trip was that God would give me not just an experience, but a life-changing experience. One distinct encounter stood out for me: our visit to the boys' Juvenile Center. At face value, these boys appeared to be callous and unsympathetic. Society shunned them due to their unspeakable crimes. My first interactions with them were escorted with caution and guard. However, after casual conversation and multiple soccer and volleyball games, I felt placid and unperturbed. I realized these boys were more than just their crimes. They were just as loved and made in the image of God as I am. I had the privilege to show them the gospel before I could preach it to them.

Written by Alex Nguchu, a junior at Elim Bible Institute and College. (India Mission Trip)

When I first heard about India, I was wrestling with the feeling of wanting to go and not wanting to go. I was scared of being put out of my comfort zone for the Lord to use me, and I kept telling God that I was not going to go to India. But I felt the Lord pulling on my heart so strongly to go and I went, and I absolutely loved it.

I didn't know how I was going to afford going to India after I said yes to the call, but I left it in God's hands. He provided a way for me to go to India through many people blessing me. It was definitely another sign that the Lord wanted me to go to India.

One of the most memorable experience I have of being in India was being able to spend time with the girls at the girls' home. Hearing and knowing about what the girls have been through was so heartbreaking. But it was also such a blessing to be able to minister to them. We taught them about how to be courageous, and how God sees them. We also played games with them, made jewelry with them, and danced with them! The girls taught us so many Indian dances, and we were all able to laugh and connect. Even though most of the girls did not speak English, I felt like we didn't even need to speak the same language, because we connected on a heart-to-heart level. I shared the love of God with them, and the girls showed the same thing to me. I would definitely love to be able to go back to India to be able to see the girls again.

Written by Myah Jones, a senior at Elim Bible Institute and College. (India Mission Trip)

NYSUM was very fun for me, but also very challenging. I had many moments at NYSUM where I feel the Lord was moving me and just changing my mindset for a lot of things. The one main lesson I learned at NYSUM was just to view people how God views people and to not judge people based on how they look or how they dress, but to always see them as God's creation. Where I grew up, all we did was judge and hate on people because that was just the culture I grew up in and that was all I knew. But at NYSUM I feel that I really broke those chains and became a completely different person.

Written by Mekhi Taylor, a sophomore at Elim Bible Institute and College. (NYSUM Internship)

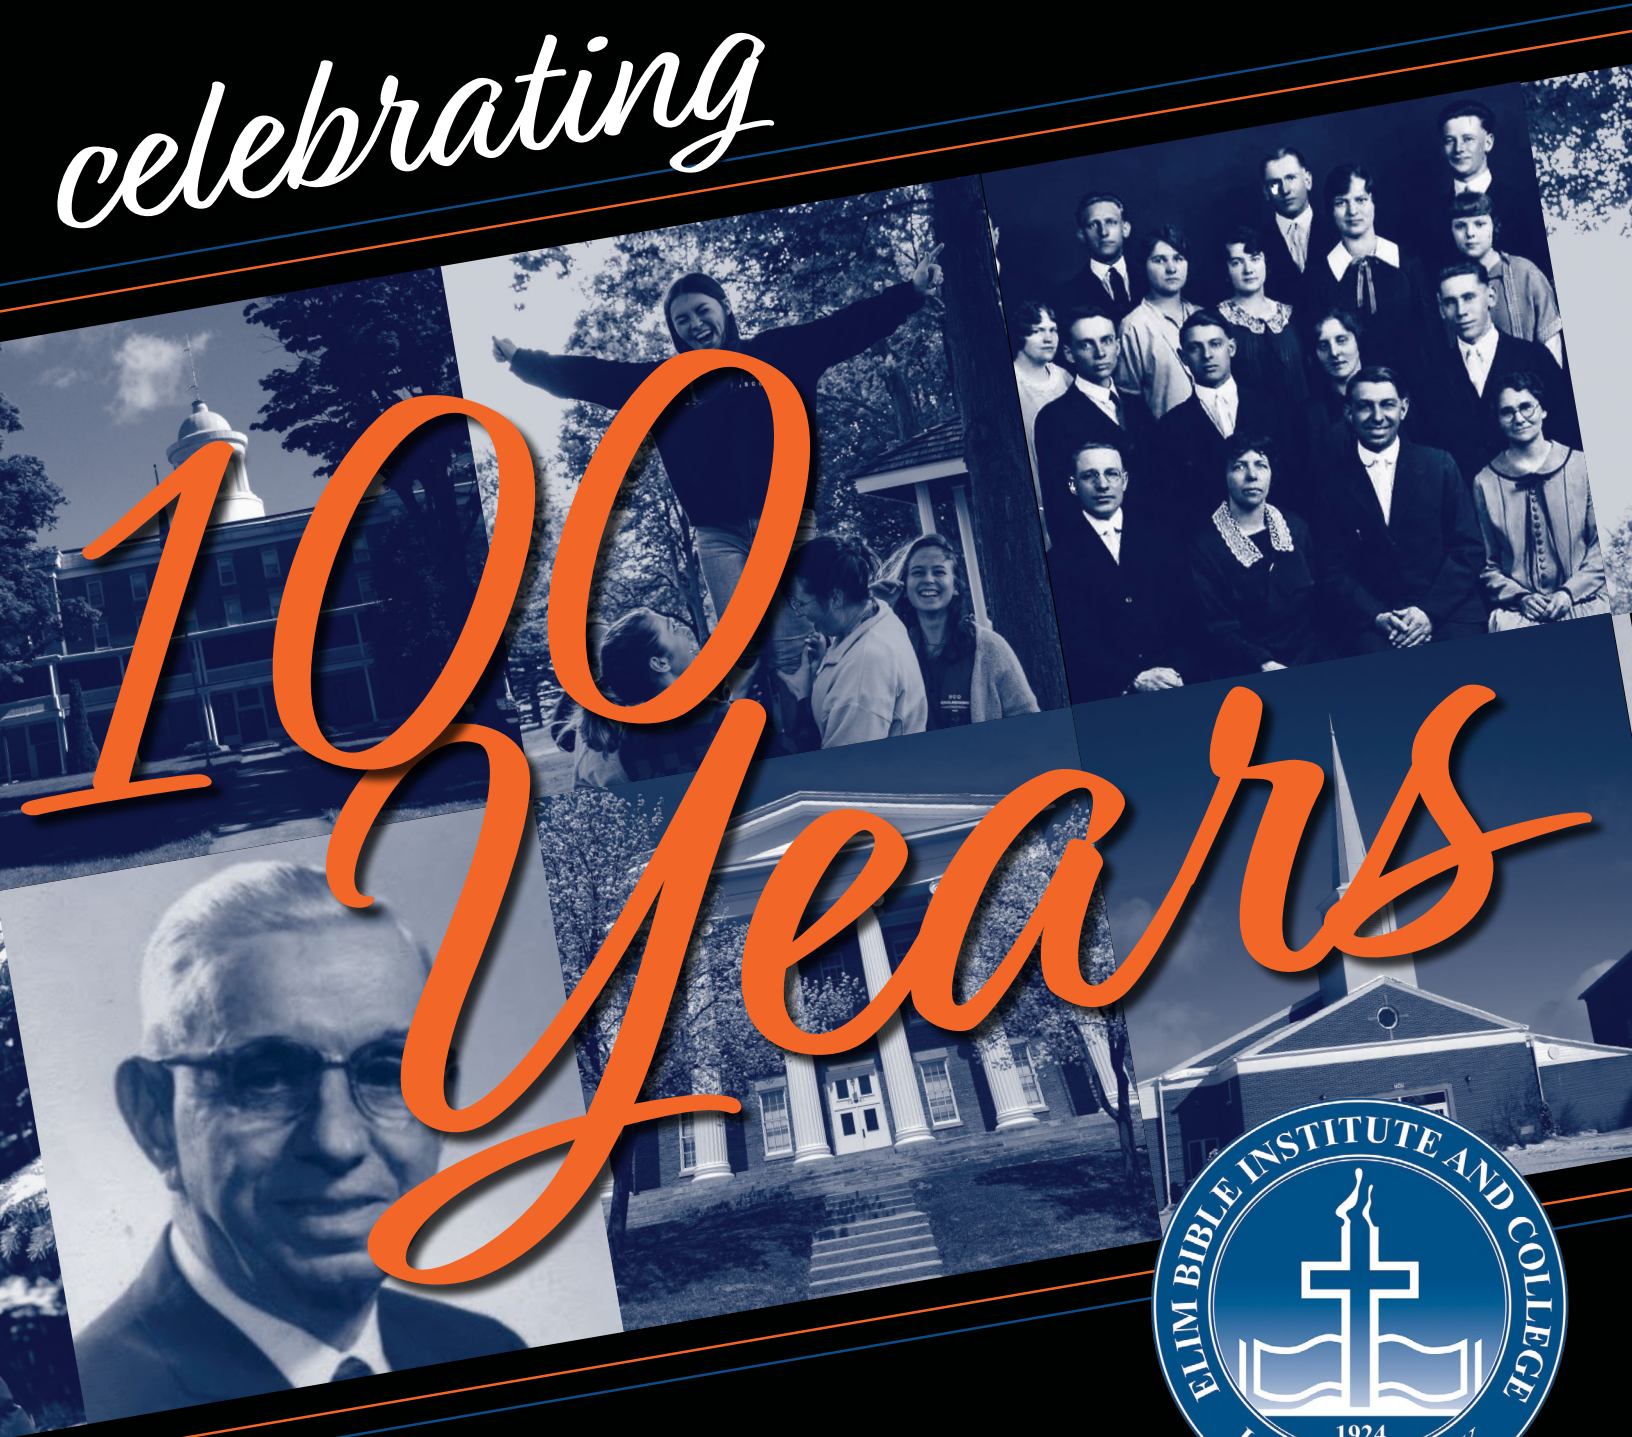

Being a leader at NYSUM was such a unique privilege. As leaders, we were generally the first to wake up and the last to sleep. Many nights, I would stay up to talk with team members about the challenges they were facing. As exhausting as it was some nights, I went to bed every night feeling alive. I remember exclaiming to my other leader after a particularly long talk with one of our members, "This is what I am made for!". The challenges that NYSUM presented made for a rich opportunity to see God move in me and through me.

Celebrating 100 Years

We are counting down the days!

I am astonished at how many times we are told to REMEMBER the Lord, what He did for us, and who He is. Starting in the Old Testament through the book of Revelation, we are encouraged to remember the Lord our God! Nehemiah told his people to “remember the Lord, great and awesome, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses.” (4:14)

When we stop and think, all of us have testimonies of the Lord’s faithfulness and great tender mercies in our lives. It will soon be 100 years ago when our founder, Rev. Ivan Q. Spencer, felt the Lord prompting him to start a Bible training center. When we look at the rich, spiritual history of our beloved Elim Bible Institute (and now College), we cannot help but sing as our revered brother Carlton Spencer did, “Great is Thy Faithfulness...!”

Why not have all of us who have been part of the Elim family come together on May 9th-12th, 2024 to REMEMBER the great faithfulness and power of our God and King? He will prove the same in these challenging days we now live in. Everyone is welcome! This event is not just for EBIC alumni but for everyone who has a connection to Elim. Oh, what a glorious celebration this is going to be!

We will be sending you more information about the event in January. We will also follow up with early registration! Please block your calendar for the above dates and come celebrate with us. We are expecting great and wonderful things! “They shall utter the memory of Your abundant goodness and will shout joyfully of Your righteousness!” (Psalm 145:7)

Soccer Intramurals

Students, staff, tenants, and alumni alike gather weekly to enjoy soccer and each other's company!

Elim does not only deeply care for the spiritual well-being of the students but also for their physical and mental health. Thus, during the fall semester, the Campus Life office organizes a soccer intramural where the students not only play for the honor and glory of bragging rights but to build long-lasting friendships through a little bit of healthy competition.

Colin Edlin, class of 2025, affirms: "Every fall semester there are soccer intramurals, and every year I get so excited to be part of it. The intramurals are not just about the thrill of playing, but about the life that brings to our community of students. Students who are introverts seem to enjoy being around others during soccer. This is why I love it! It brings everyone together to have a good time. Whether there is an insane goal, skill move, or magnificent save, the crowd always hypes you up. No matter what team you are on, you will always be cheered for and will always feel loved. The soccer intramurals have personally enriched my college experience by offering a time to bond with friends, healthy competition, and most importantly has brought me so much joy!

Written by Gabriel Cepeda, Campus Life Director and Worship Coordinator at Elim Bible Institute and College.

Alumni Gatherings

Our first alumni reunions have been a success!

The echoes of laughter and the warmth of old friendships filled the campus this summer at EBIC as we hosted gatherings for our alumni. With over 160 individuals in July and 80 in April, these events were a heartwarming testament to the enduring bonds formed here at Elim.

The first gathering was on April 22, which gathered alumni from within a fifty-mile radius of the school. We had an exceptional time of worship led by our beloved Dick Grout. Our guest speaker was our former Elim President, Jeff Clark, who delivered a dynamite message! Keeping the event as a one-day reunion ensured it remained free, and our time together was epic. There was a strong sense of the movement of the Holy Spirit, with several prophetic words given.

Our July gathering was a reunion of alumni from the classes of 2000 to 2003. This reunion was organized by two 2003 graduates, Sam Synder and Glenroy Watson. We owe them and many others a huge thanks for their care and hard work. With the assistance provided, our staff was well prepared to facilitate the event. We extend special recognition to Chef Miguel Todd, who exemplified a true servant's heart.

The two-day event was packed with activities for alumni and their kids to enjoy. Tours, games, and a great meal all brought waves of memories and a chance to reconnect. Nonetheless, the most impactful moments occurred during the worship and the sharing of testimonies. While we may all face struggles at times, the overwhelming theme was the faithfulness of the Lord. What a wonderful experience!

Many gave financial gifts, a heartwarming show of support for the place that brought us together. We challenged all our great alumni to consider becoming "Alumni Leaders". This is an opportunity to help the school on a more consistent level and receive some perks in return. (Find more information on our website.)

We are actively working to organize additional gatherings in other states, and we need you, our alumni, to be the "boots on the ground" in your communities. If you have a deep affection for Elim and would like to be involved, I would appreciate the opportunity to personally talk with you; please, give me a call at (585) 582-8249!

These events remind us that Elim is not just an institution, but a family of believers following wholeheartedly after Jesus. Here at EBIC we are asking the Lord daily to help us to hear the Holy Spirit's direction and move forward in His purposes.

Written by Rev. Guy Gabriel, Pastoral Liason and Interim Alumni President at Elim Bible Institute and College.
